

International Society of Developmental and Comparative Immunology

ISDCI 2009

11th Congress of the International Society of Developmental and Comparative Immunology

June 28 - July 4, 2009

Award Dinner - Banquet Žofín Palace Prague 3th July, 20.00 – 24.00

Žofín Palace Prague

Žofín Palace is the traditional venue of many important cultural and social events in Prague.

Žofín is located in the middle of Vltava river with beautiful view of historical Prague.

Exclusive place for concerts, balls, festivals, banquets...

It was built in 1835 on the island on Vltava river called Slovanský ostrov as a classicistic building was called in honour of Princess Sofie (Žofie in Czech), the mother of the emperor František Josef I.

In 1884 it was rebuilt in Neo-Renaissance style with ornate interiors of representatives halls which have served for 150 years for Czech and not only for Czech social life and culture.

Presently Žofín is an exclusive Prague historical and cultural centre, where concerts of classical music, festivals, international congresses, balls, meetings of politics, diplomats, financiers from the whole world take place.

Invitation

Invitation card for the Award Dinner will be given on-site at Registration centre of the ISDCI congress. It is a personal card and serves as a ticket for the Award Dinner, it is necessary to have it by yourself.

Formal clothes is recommended by organizer of the banquet.

Transportation

Transportation will be provided by the organizer of the congress from the Diplomat Hotel Prague to the Žofín Palace Prague and back to the hotel.

Departure from the Diplomat Hotel to the Žofín Palace will be at 19:10.

The first bus departure from the Žofín Palace back to the Diplomat Hotel will be from the parking place at Palace Žofín at 23.15.

The last departure will be at 24:00.

Transportation time schedule will be available at the Registration Centre (reception foyer Diplomat Hotel Prague).